

Name: Dr. Juhee Kim

Employer Name: University of Idaho

Position: Assistant Professor Education Leadership

Biography: Juhee Kim is an assistant professor of educational leadership at the University of Idaho. Dr. Kim received her second doctorate in educational leadership and policy studies from Eastern Kentucky University in 2021. Before that, she earned a Ph.D. degree in youth education and leadership from Myongji University. She was born in South Korea and moved to the United States in 2017.

Dr. Kim has 15 years of teaching experience at the collegiate and graduate level as a visiting professor while working for the Korea Youth Work Agency which executes national education policy and system. She supported youth activity policies, leader training, and accredited leadership programs as well as administrative work with 17 local governmental youth agencies, K-12 public schools/districts, and higher education institutions.

Email: juheekim@uidaho.edu

City: Moscow

State: ID