LEADING LEADERS IASA
IDAHO ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS

Stronger Leaders. Stronger Schools.

That's the NAESP Difference.

NAESP is the only national association designed specifically to elevate the voice and needs of Pre-K-Grade 8 school leaders.

For more than 105 years, we have supported elementary and middle level principals so they can create thriving schools where every child has the opportunity to succeed.

The Idaho Association of School Administrators (IASA) brings together educational leaders from across our state to strengthen public education. We help school leaders build strong school cultures, create networks that support effective education, and develop partnerships within their communities and beyond. As the umbrella organization for multiple educational leadership divisions and affiliate organizations, IASA unites school leaders from every region of Idaho to work together, share ideas, and make our schools the best they can be for Idaho's students.
